UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT CHRISTINA M. WOLFE

CMSgt Christina M. Wolfe is the 47th Operations Group Senior Enlisted Leader, 47th Operations Group at Laughlin Air Force Base, Texas. She serves as the senior enlisted advisor to the group Commander and 7 squadron Commanders on matters related to the morale, welfare, training, development, and effective utilization of 150 enlisted service members across 8 career fields, 290 commissioned officers and 160 civilians. Chief Wolfe provides operations leadership perspective at the world's largest pilot training base where they graduate more than 350 student pilots each year. The group operates 209 aircraft comprised of the T-1A, T-6A, and the T-38C valued at over $1.1 billion and flies more than 56,000 sorties each year.

Chief Wolfe grew up in Orange County, CA, and entered the Air Force in January 1994. Her background includes various duties in aviation resource management, wing protocol, additional duty first sergeant and squadron superintendent. Her assignments include bases in Florida, Alaska and Hawaii. She also served overseas in Japan and deployed to Korea in support of Foal Eagle and to Okinawa to support PACAF's Threat Security Package.

Prior to this assignment, she served as the Inspector General Superintendent, 341st Missile Wing, Malmstrom Air Force Base, Montana.
